

Dear Professor Bridge,

Many thanks for your kind letter of June 18th. It was a great pleasure to me to hear that you found my book interesting. That we do agree in a number of important points was clear to me ever since I read your 'Strife about Comprehensibility' in the B.G.P.S.

I have not yet received the copy of Causality which you mention, but I thank you in advance.

With kind regards,
Yours sincerely
R. R. Pepper
