Hinterglemm, July 11th 1964

Dear Mario,

Unfortunately we do not have an address of you for the summer-holidays. So I won't post this letter before returning to England, in the hope that we shall here find news from you, plus an address.

I hope you got a previous letter of mine, sent from here (= Hinterglemm) to Temple University, and thanking you for that marvellous gift, your own handiwork The Critical Approach. In case you have not received that letter, let me say here again that the book is surprising in its quality as well as in the excellence of its production, and that I enjoyed it tremendously.

This letter is, in the main, to ask you whether you can order for me some copies (at the Editor's price, if possible)? I should like to have three copies myself, to send them to some friends, and I should like you to ask the publishers to send, in addition, one copy each to the following <sup>three</sup> addresses:

- (1) Mr & Mrs Don Yuen
1519 Hearst Ave., Apt. 4, Berkeley 3, California.
- (2) Dr & Mrs Franz Urbach, 153 East Parkway, Rochester 17, N.Y.
- (3) Professor & Mrs Henry Mehlberg
5758 Kenwood Ave., Chicago 37, Illinois.

There is no need to enclose anything with it.

Please let me know how much these 6 books cost (plus postage), so that I can send you the money.

I do hope you have a very pleasant summer. Any news about Canberra?

yours ever

P.S. I hope the publishers have sent review copies not only to the usual U.S. periodicals, but also to English ones, especially to The Times; The Times Literary Supplement; Mind; Philosophy; The Philosophical Quarterly; Nature; The New Scientist; The New Society; The Listener; B.J.P.S.; The British Journal of Sociology; The Observer; The Sunday Times; The Sunday Telegraph. - Also to Arne Ness, Oslo, for Enquiry; to Theoria (Sweden); to Synthese (Holland); to Studium Generale and Philosophia Naturalis (Germany): I think that the book will have a wide appeal.
