Dear proud Spaniards,

There is nothing we can say in extenuation - and as to a pair of peasants (or is it a brace of pheasants?) we shall instead accept yourself for dinner.

But to quote you again when you say
'Now in earnest'.

You don't know how happy we would be if old George Washington's gossip would come true!
Even if it did mean two years abroad, even then, although difficult, it should be possible. Be sure to let us know when you hear some more about it.

Many thanks for your letter and ~~our~~ best wishes, from both of us,

Love

Karl and Hennie.
