

Professor Sir Karl and Lady Popper

Fallowfield
Manor Road
Penn, Buckinghamshire
England.

July 1st, 1975

Dear Mario,

Many thanks for your kind letter of June 7th, and our warmest wishes for a happy year in Mexico; or as happy as it can be in our uncertain times. I quite realize that your decision will not be an easy one. I should come down on the side of Canada, if I were you.

You shall not miss me on my visit ^{to Canada} because I am unable to accept the invitation. I thought I had written to you, but obviously I am mistaken. I have written, declining the very pleasant opportunity because I simply have not the energy left to work on my books, i.e. partly finished and long promised books, and accept invitations which mean long journeys and a lot of preparation. I should have liked to come, because the invitation was given in a very nice way.

As to Feyerabend's latest "show" as you call it, I deny myself the pleasure of reading ~~quite a number of~~ this type of output. I find that this is one of the few negative things which it is in one's power to do, and which bring positive rewards. There are quite a number of Feyerabends ^(and anarchists) about, unfortunately.

Again, all the best to you and Marta. Please keep in touch, even if my response is very meagre.

Love to both of you from both of us,

Yours ever

Karl

Professor Sir Karl and Lady Popper

Wallowfield
Manor Road
Penn, Buckinghamshire
England.

July 1st, 1975

Dear Maria,

Many thanks for your kind letter of June 7th, and our warmest wishes for a happy year in Mexico; or as happy as it can be in our uncertain times. I quite realize that your decision will not be an easy one. I should come down on the side of Canada, if I were you.

You shall not miss me on my visit to Canada because I am unable to accept the invitation. I thought I had written to you, but obviously I am mistaken. I have written, declining the very pleasant opportunity because I simply have not the energy left to work on my books, i.e. partly finished and long promised books, and accept invitations which mean long journeys and a lot of preparation. I should have liked to come, because the invitation was given in a very nice way. As to Feyereabend's latest "show" as you call it, I deny myself the pleasure of reading ~~and answering~~ this type of output. I find that this is one of the few negative things which it is in one's power to do, and which bring positive rewards. There are quite a number of Feyerebends about, unfortunately. Again, all the best to you and Maria. Please keep in touch, even if my response is very meagre.

Love to both of you from both of us,

Yours ever

Karl