Dear Mario,

The Critical Approach

It was terribly kind of you to write between having not yet recovered from moving to Montreal and leaving for Amsterdam and Bern. Thank you very much for your letter. Dr. Spengler will be sorry to hear that he cannot get the book, and so are we.

It would be nice if Harper Torchbooks would take it. Could you not suggest it to them?

I am tired and seriously overworked, but I am (slowly) making progress.

Have you seen that at least one of my former pupils has deserted to the camp of irrationalism?

Love, yours ever Karl.
